

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Compiling a calendar of Toronto's oldest and largest trees is as daunting a project as it is inspirational! Toronto Tree Portraits 2010 represents the hard won achievement of a dedicated artistic team whose efforts were well beyond outstanding. Their effort was perhaps only matched by the ongoing philanthropic support for the calendar.

In the midst of our current economic decline such generosity takes on an entire new meaning.

The Toronto Parks and Trees Foundation wishes to recognize the philanthropic and creative contributions of the people who made this project possible:

Tanny Wells, who on behalf of her real estate clients donated the seed grant to create the first Toronto Tree Portraits, has once again generously provided the funding that makes possible another full colour version calendar - celebrating the beauty and heritage that trees bring to our city.

Vincenzo Pietropaolo, Sonia Day and the C.J. Graphics Inc. team each approached this project with outstanding passion and commitment. All three have consistently supported Toronto Tree Portraits with their creative efforts over a number of years. They are all hard working champions and advocates of trees. Their love of all things arboricultural is reflected in the quality of this year's calendar.

Vincenzo Pietropaolo wishes to thank the following people: Arthur Beauregard, Kimberley and Terry Christensen, Bob Cooke, Menandro Cunanan, Giuliana Colalillo, Arlene Doane, Schuster Gindin, Luke Hansen, Barbara Heidenreich, David Iabonie, Todd Irvine, Bruce Johnston, Vazken Kaljian, Rob McDonald, Madeleine McDowell, Mark Mullins, Caryl Newbery, Dennis Pollock, Anna Prior, Connor Prior, Fiona Prior, Jack Radecki, Mark Reeves, Sam and Mary Ritacca, Craig Wilson, Dick and Florence Watts, Ken Willis, Black Creek Pioneer Village and Markland Wood Golf Club.

The Foundation extends its gratitude to the following companies and individuals for contributing financial and in-kind support: Nicholas Austin, Green Toronto Awards at the Toronto Community Foundation (donation directed by The Living Wall Inc.), Ellen and Howard Greenwood on behalf of the Henry and Bernice Kaufmann Foundation, Mark's Choice Garden Products at Home Hardware, Mountain Equipment Co-op, Deputy Mayor Joe Pantalone, Glen Simpson, Toronto Parks, Forestry and Recreation and Tanny Wells.
